CIRCULAR

The AIS (Conduct) Rules and Rajasthan Civil Services (Conduct) Rules prohibit Government officers/officials associating themselves with any society/institution/club etc. in any way, whose specific objectives can be fulfilled only by collection of funds, except with the previous sanction of the Government, because such association of Government functionaries is bound to evoke public criticism.

Instances have come to notice in which either certain departments have directed the officers working in the field to become office bearers/members of certain societies, or, some officers are associating themselves with the raising of fund/collections for certain charitable societies etc.

In view of the provisions of Conduct Rules in this regard, it is requested to ensure that before giving such instructions/directions to any officer(s) prior approval of the State Government is taken.

The above instructions may also be brought to the notice of all subordinate authorities who may have occasion to deal with such cases.

Secretary to Government

Copy forwarded to Director General & IG of Police for issuing instructions on the same lines to the subordinate authorities.
