APPOINTMENT, PROBATION AND SENIORITY

<sup>1</sup>24. Appointment to the Service:- Appointment to posts in the service by direct recruitment shall be made by the Appointing Authority on occurrence of substantive vacancies from the candidates selected and rule 22 in the order of merit.

25. Urgent Temporary Appointment:- A vacancy in the Service which cannot be filled in immediately by direct recruitment under the rules may be filled in by the Appointment Authority or the Authority competent to make appointment, as the case may be by appointing temporarily thereto a person eligible for direct recruitment to the service, under the provisions of these rules:

Provided that such an appointment will not be continued beyond a period of one year.

Provided that any period after such appointment during which a person has been on deputation on a corresponding or higher post shall count towards the period of probation.

2. During the period of probation specified in sub-rule (1), each probationer trainee may be required to pass such Departmental Examination and to undergo such training as the Government may, from time to time, specify.

<sup>2</sup> Substituted for §“Period of probation.- 1. All persons appointed to the Service by direct recruitment against a substantive vacancy shall be placed on probation for a period of two years and those appointed to the Service by promotion/Special selection against a substantive vacancy shall be placed on probation for a period of one year.”

Provided that - (i) Such of them as have, previous to their appointment by promotion/special selection or by direct recruitment against a substantive vacancy, officiated temporarily on the post which is followed by regular selection may be permitted by the Appointing Authority to count such officiating or temporary service towards the period of probation. This shall, however not amount to involve supersession of any senior person or disturb the order of their preference in respective quota or reservation in recruitment;

(ii) any period after such appointment during which a person has been on deputation on a corresponding or higher post shall count towards the period of probation.

(2) During the period of probation specified in sub-rule (1), each probationer trainee may be required to pass such Departmental Examination and to undergo such training as the Government may, from time to time, specify.

Explanation- In case of a person who dies or is due to retire on attaining the age of superannuation the period of probation shall be reduced so as to end one day earlier on the date immediately preceding the date of his death or retirement from Government Service. <sup>1</sup>26A. Pay during probation.- A probationer trainee appointed to the service by direct recruitment, shall be paid monthly fixed remuneration during the period of probation at such rates as may be fixed by the Government from time to time:

Provided that an employee having been regularly selected as per provisions of recruitment rules in the Government service may be allowed emoluments in his/her own pay scale in the existing pay scale of the post during service as probationer trainee or fixed remuneration of the new post, whichever is advantageous to him/her.

27. (1) Notwithstanding anything contained in rule 26, if no order of confirmation is issued by the Appointing Authority within a period of six months, an employee appointed on temporary basis who has after the date of his regular recruitment by direct recruitment completed a period of two years service or a higher post under the same Appointing Authority or would have so worked but for his deputation or training shall on the occurrence of permanent vacancies be entitled to be treated as confirmed if the same conditions as are prescribed under the Rules for the confirmation of probationer are fulfilled subject to the quota prescribed under the rules and in accordance with his seniority.

Provided that if the employee has failed to give satisfaction or has not fulfilled any of the conditions prescribed for confirmation, such as passing of Departmental Examination or training etc. the aforesaid period may be extended as prescribed for probation or under the Rajasthan Civil Services (Departmental Examination) Rules, 1959, and any other Rules, or by one year, whichever is longer. If the employee still fails to fulfill the prescribed conditions or fails to give satisfaction he will be liable to be discharged from such post in the same manner as a probationer or reverted to his substantive or lower post, if any, to which he may be entitled.

Provided further that no person shall be debarred from confirmation after the said period of service if no reasons to the contrary about the satisfactory performance of his work are communicated to him within the said period.

(2) The reasons for not confirming an employee referred to in the second proviso to sub-rule (1) shall in the case of a non-gazetted employee be also immediately recorded by the Appointing Authority in his Service Book and Confidential Report file. A written acknowledgement shall be kept on record in all these cases.

Explanation:-(i) Regular recruitment for the purpose of this rule shall mean appointment by direct recruitment or on initial constitution of service in accordance with any of the Service Rules promulgated under proviso to Article 309 of the Constitution of India or for posts for which no Service Rules exist. If the posts are within the purview of Rajasthan Public Service Commission recruitment in consultation with them but it shall not include an urgent temporary appointment, ad-hoc appointment or officiating promotion against temporary or lien vacancies which are liable to review and revision from year to year. In case where the Service Rules specifically permit appointment by transfer such appointment shall be treated regular recruitment if the appointment to the post from which the official was transferred was after regular recruitment. Persons who have been made eligible for substantive appointment to post under the rules shall be treated as having been regularly recruited.
