PART-II

Cadre

4. Composition and strength of the Service. - (1) The nature of the posts in the service shall be as specified in Column 2 of the Schedule.

(2) The strength of posts in the service shall be such as may be determined by the Government from time to time;

Provided that the Government may-

- (a) Create any post, permanent or temporary, from time to time as may be found necessary, and may abolish any such post in the like manner without thereby entitle any person to any compensation; and
- (b) Leave unfilled or hold in abeyance; or abolish or allow to lapse any post, permanent or temporary, from time to time without thereby entitling any person to any compensation.

5. Constitution of the Service. - The Service shall consist of -

- (a) all persons holding substantively the posts specified in the Schedule.
- (b) all persons recruited to the service before the commencement of these rules, provided recruitment was made in accordance with the provisions of the rules or orders for the time being in force; and
- (c) All persons recruited to the service in accordance with the provisions of these rules except those appointed under rule 26.

PART-III

Recruitment

6. Method of recruitment. -(1) Recruitment to posts in the service after the commencement of these rules shall be made by the following methods in the proportion as indicated in Column 3 of the Schedule: -

- (a) direct recruitment through Combined Competitive Examinations in accordance with the Rajasthan State and Subordinate service (Direct Recruitment by Combined Competitive Examinations) Rules, 1962.
- (b) promotion in accordance with Part V of these rules:

Provided-

- (i) that if Appointing Authority is satisfied in consultation with the Commission, where necessary, that suitable persons are not available for appointment by either method of recruitment or in the proportion so indicated in a particular year, appointment by the other method in relaxation of the prescribed proportion may be made in the same manner as specified in these rules;

- (ii) that nothing in these rules shall preclude the Appointing Authority from appointing officers previously in the employment of pre-reorganisation States of Ajmer, Bombay and Madhya Bharat to suitable posts specific in the Schedule in accordance with the directions governing the integration of their services;
- (iii) ⁴ that the post of Director shall be filled by an officer of IAS.
- (iv) that the persons who were appointed to the posts included in the Schedule in an ad-hoc, officiating or temporary basis before 1-1-1974 and were working as such or on higher posts or would have worked but for their temporary transfer on any ex-cadre post on the date these rules came into force shall be screened by a Committee referred in rule 24, for adjudging their suitability of the posts held provided they possess the qualifications prescribed in these rules either for direct recruitment or promotion or the prescribed qualification on the basis of which the persons were selected or ad-hoc / officiating / temporary appointment, this provision shall be subject to the following conditions; viz. -
- (a) that a person appointed on ad-hoc basis shall not be entitled to screening for a post higher than to which he was initially appointed, if a person senior to him on lower post who fulfilled qualifications prescribed for the post was either not given such ad hoc appointment or is not entitled to screening under this rule. Seniority of ad hoc employees for this purpose shall be determined according to length of continuous service to a post; and
- (b) that the Committee appointed under these rules for adjudging suitability by screening either as an exception of general methods of recruitment or as initial constitution of service, may ex-gratia, recommend, if any of the employees with more than 3 years of service on post for which he is to be screened is not adjudged suitable and if thereafter has no right to be appointed on a lower post, for such lower post being offered to him by absorption and thereupon such an employee shall be treated as surplus employee under the provisions of the Rajasthan Civil Services (Absorption of Surplus Personnel) Rules, 1969, and such employee may be absorbed on the lower post on recommendations of the Committee subject to such conditions as may be laid down by it.

⁴ Substituted for " that if the Appointing Authority is satisfied in consultation with the Commission that no suitable person is available for promotion to the post of Director or Deputy Director, the post of Director or the Deputy Director may be filled in by an I. A.S. or R. A. S. officer, respectively. Provided further that in case either no officer is eligible or found suitable for promotion in the Service for the post of Director or Deputy Director or the Government do not consider to fill the post of Director out of I.A.S. Officers or Deputy Director from R. A. S. Officers such post may be filled in either by direct recruitment in accordance with Part IV of these rules, or on contract basis; " vide Notification No. F. 1(1)DOP/ A-II / 90, dated 30-12-1997.

NOTE:-The provision of screening under proviso (iv) shall be treated to be the first recruitment under these rules and after exhausting the vacancies required for the screened persons, irrespective of direct recruitment and promotion quota, the direct recruitment and Promotion quota shall be applied.

⁵ (1 A). "Recruitment to the service by the aforesaid method shall be made in such a manner that the persons appointed to the service by each method do not at any time exceed the percentage laid down in the Rules/Schedule of the total cadre strength as sanctioned for each category from time to time."

(2) Notwithstanding anything contained in these rules, the recruitment, promotion seniority and confirmation etc. of a person who join the Army/Air Force/Navy during an Emergency shall be regulated by such orders and instructions as may be issued by the Government from time to time provided that these are regulated mutatis mutandis according to the instructions issued on the subject by the Government of India.

He must produce a certificate of good character from the Principal Academic Officer of the School or College or University in which he was last educated and two such certificates, written not more than six months prior to the date of application, from two responsible persons not connected with his School or College or University and not related to him.

NOTES :-(1) A conviction by a Court of Law may not itself involve the refusal of a certificate of good character. The circumstances of the conviction would be taken into account and if they involve no moral turpitude or association with crimes of violence or with a movement which has as its object to overthrow by violent means of the Government as by law established, the mere conviction need not be regarded as a disqualification.

- (2) Ex-prisoners who by their disciplined life while in prison and by their subsequent good conduct, have proved to be completely reformed, should not be discriminated against on grounds of their previous conviction for purposes or employment in the service. Those who are convicted of offences not involving moral turpitude shall be deemed to have been completely reformed on the production of a report to that effect from the Superintendent, After Care Home or if there are no such homes in a particular Districts, from the Superintendent of Police of that Districts.

Those convicted of offences involving moral turpitude shall be required to produce a certificate from the Superintendent, After Care Home, or if there are no such Homes in a particular Distract, from the Superintendent of Police of that District endorsed by the Inspector General of Prisons to the effect that they are suitable for employment as they have proved to be completely reformed by their disciplined life while in prison and by their sub-sequent good conduct in an After Care Home.

13. Physical Fitness.-A candidate for direct recruitment to the Service, must be in good mental and bodily health and free from any mental and physical defect likely to interfere with the efficient performance of his duties as a member of Service and if selected must produce a certificate to that effect from a Medical Authority notified by the Government for the purpose. The Appointing Authority may dispense with the production of such certificate in the case of a candidate promoted in the regular line of promotion, or who is already serving in connection with the affairs of the State if he has already been medically examined for the previous appointment and the essential standards of medical examination of the two posts held by him are held to be comparable for efficient performance of duties of the new post and his age has not reduced his efficiency for the purpose.

14. Employment of irregular or improper means.-A candidate who is or has been declared by the Commission or the Appointing Authority, as the case may be, guilty of impersonation or of submitting fabricated document or documents which has been tempered with or of making statements which are incorrect or false or of suppressing material information or of using or attempting to use unfair means in the examination or interview or otherwise resorting to any other irregular or improper means for obtaining admission to the examination or interview, may, in addition to rendering himself liable to criminal prosecution, be debarred either permanently or for a specified period-

- (a) by the Commission or the Appointing Authority from the admission to any examination or appearance at any interview held by the Commission or the Appointing Authority for selection of candidates, and
- (b) by the Government from employment under the Government.

15. Canvassing.-No recommendation for recruitment either written or oral, other than that required under the rules, shall be taken into consideration. Any attempt on the part of a candidate to support directly or indirectly for his candidature by any means may disqualify him for recruitment by the Commission or the Appointing Authority, as the case may be.

PART-IV

Procedure for Direct Recruitment

16. Inviting of applications. -Applications for direct recruitment to posts in the service, shall be invited by Commission by advertising the vacancies to be filled in the Official Gazette or in such other manner, as may be deemed ²⁸ "fit".

²⁹"The advertisement shall contain a clause that a candidate who accepts the assignment on the post being offered to him/ her shall be paid monthly fixed remuneration at the rate fixed by the State Government from time to time during the period of probation and the scale of pay of the post as shown else-where in the Advertisement shall be allowed only from the date of successful completion of the period of probation mentioned in the respective Recruitment Rules."

of the senior-most persons who are qualified under these rules for promotion on the basis of merit or on the basis of seniority-cum-merit to the class of posts concerned.

(2) The persons enumerated in Column 5 of the Schedule shall be eligible for promotion to posts specified against them in column 2 thereof to the extent indicated in Column 3 subject to their possessing minimum qualifications and experience on the first day of the month of April of the year of selection as specified in Column 6.

(3) No person shall be considered for promotion unless he is substantively appointed and confirmed on next lower post. If no person substantive in next lower post is eligible for promotion, persons who have been appointed on such post on officiating basis after selection in accordance with one of the methods of recruitment or under any service Rules promulgated under proviso to Article 309 of the Constitution of India may be considered for promotion on officiating basis only in the order of seniority in which they would have been had they been substantive on the said lower post.

Explanation.- In case direct recruitment to a post has been made earlier than regular selection for promotion in a particular year, such of the persons who are or were eligible for appointment to that post by both the methods of recruitment has been appointed by direct recruitment first, shall also be considered for promotion.

(4) Selection for promotion in the regular line of promotion from the post not included in the Service to the lower post of the Service shall be made strictly on the basis of merit.

(5) Selection for promotion from the lowest post to the next higher post in the Service shall be made on the basis of seniority-cum-merit, from amongst the persons who have put in at least five years' service, unless different period is prescribed elsewhere in these rules, on the first day of the month of April of the year of selection on the post from which selection is to be made:

Provided that in the event of non-availability of the person with the requisite period of service of five years the Committee may consider the persons having less than the prescribed period of service, if they fulfil the qualifications, experience and other conditions for promotion prescribed elsewhere in these rules and are found otherwise suitable for promotion on the basis of seniority-cum-merit :

Provided further that in respect of posts which are required to be filled on the basis of seniority-cum-merit under this sub-rule, the Committee may select for promotion such persons of outstanding merit available within the zone of the consideration who may not be selected, on the basis of seniority-cum-merit, to the extent of one fourth of the number of vacancies to be filled in by promotion and if the number of vacancies exceeds one but is less than four, the Committee may select one person on the basis of merit alone and if the vacancies are more than four and the calculation of the number of vacancies to be filled by merit alone according to the aforesaid basis results in a fraction, the Committee may select one more person against a fraction of half or more. On being so selected for the purpose of determination of seniority, such persons shall be deemed to have been selected on the basis of seniority-cum-merit.

(6) Selection for promotion to all other higher posts in the Service shall be made on the basis of merit alone.

(7) The persons having been selected and appointed by promotion to a post or category of post on the basis of merit, shall be eligible for promotion to the next higher post or category of post, which is to be filled in by merit only when they have put in after regular selection, at least five year service unless a higher period of service is prescribed elsewhere in these rule, on the first day of the month of April of the year of selection on the post or category of post from which selection is made:

Provided that the condition of five years' service shall not be applicable to a person if any person junior to him is eligible for consideration for promotion on the basis or merit;

Provided further that in the event of non-availability of person, equal to the number of vacancies to be filled in, eligible for promotion in the category of post next lower from which promotion is made, the Committee may consider the persons having less than five years' service if they are found otherwise suitable for promotion on the basis of merit alone.

(8) The zone of eligibility for promotion shall be five times the number of vacancies to be filled in on the basis of seniority-cum-merit or merit, as the case may be:

Provided that in case of non-availability of sufficient number of suitable persons for selection on the basis of merit, the committee may at its discretion consider persons of outstanding merit outside the zone of eligibility but falling within six times the number of vacancies to be filled in on the basis of merit.

(9) The Committee consisting of the Chairman of the Commission or a Member there of nominated by him, as Chairman, the Special Secretary to the Government in the Department of Personal or his representative not below the rank of Deputy Secretary in the Department of Personnel, the Deputy Secretary to the Government in the General Administration Department as Members and the Director as Member-Secretary shall consider the cases of all the senior most persons who are eligible and qualified for promotion to the class of posts concerned under these rules, interviewing such of them as it may deem necessary and shall prepare a list containing names of the suitable persons equal to the number of existing vacancies and the vacancies anticipated to occur during the next twelve months after the determination of vacancies. The Committee shall also prepare a separate list containing names of persons who may be considered suitable to fill temporary or permanent vacancies which may occur till the next meeting of the Committee on a temporary or officiating basis and the list so prepared shall be reviewed and revised every year and shall remain in force until it is so reviewed and revised. The lists so prepared on the basis of merit shall be arranged in order of preference and the lists prepared on the basis of seniority-cum merit shall be arranged in order of seniority on the category of post from which selection has been made. Such lists shall be sent to the Appointing Authority together with the Annual Confidential Rolls any Personal Files of the candidates included in it as also of those not selected any. In the case of promotion to the post of Director, he (the Director) shall not be the Member-Secretary of the Committee and the list shall be prepared by the Deputy Secretary to the Government in the General Administration Department and he will be the Member-Secretary of the Committee.

The Chairman or the Member of the Commission shall preside at all meetings of the Committee at which he is present.

Explanation - The list of preference shall classify the officers in order as, 'outstanding', 'very good' and 'good' on the basis of merit. In each class, the officers shall maintain their inter se seniority of the next below grade.

(10) Where consultation with the Commission is necessary the lists prepared by the Committee shall be forwarded to the Commission by the Appointing authority along with the Personal files and Annual Confidential Roll of all persons whose names have been considered by the Committee.

³⁶ Provided that in case any Member or Member-Secretary, as the case may be, consisting the Committee has not been appointed to the post concerned, the officer holding charge of the post for the time being shall be Member or Member-Secretary, as the case may be, of the Committee.

(11) The Commission shall consider the lists prepared by the Committee along with other relevant documents received from the Appointing Authority, and unless any change is considered necessary, shall approve the lists. In case the Commission consider it necessary to make any change in the lists received from the Appointing Authority, it shall inform the Appointing Authority of the changes proposed by it. After taking into account of the comments of the Commission, if any, the Appointing Authority may approve the lists finally with such modifications as may in its opinion, be just and proper and when the Appointing Authority is an authority subordinate to the Government, the lists approved by the Commission shall be disturbed only with the approval of the Government.

(12) Appointments shall be made by the Appointing Authority taking persons out of the lists finally approved under the preceding sub-rule (11) in the order in which they have been placed in the lists, till such lists are exhausted or reviewed and revised, as the case may be.

(13) Government may issue instructions for provisionally dealing with promotions, appointments or other ancillary matters in an equitable and fair manner of persons who may be under suspension or against whom departmental proceedings is under progress, at the time promotions are considered to a post to which they are eligible or would have been eligible but for such suspension or pendency of such enquiry or proceeding.
