(6) The zone of consideration of persons eligible for promotion shall be as under:-

(i)

Number of Vacancies	Number of eligible persons to be Considered
----------------------------	--

- | | |
|--------------------------------|---------------------------------------|
| (a) for one vacancy | - five eligible persons |
| (b) for two vacancies | - eight eligible persons |
| (c) for three vacancies | - ten eligible persons |
| (d) for four or more vacancies | - three times the number of vacancies |

where, the number of eligible persons for promotion to higher post(s) is less than the number specified above, all the persons so eligible shall be considered.

(ii) where, adequate number of the candidates belonging to the Scheduled Castes or the Scheduled Tribes, as the case may be, are not available within the zone of consideration specified above, the zone of consideration may be extended up to seven times the number of vacancies and the candidates belonging to the Scheduled Castes or the Scheduled Tribes, as the case may be, (and not any other) coming within the extended zone of consideration shall also be considered against the vacancies reserved for them.

(7) Except as otherwise expressly provided in this rule, the conditions of eligibility for promotion, constitution of the Committee and procedure for selection shall be the same as prescribed elsewhere in these rules.

(8) The Committee shall consider the cases of all the senior most persons who are eligible and qualified for promotion to the class of post(s) concerned under these rules and shall prepare a list containing names of the persons found suitable on the basis of seniority-cum-merit or on the basis of merit, as the case may be, as per the criteria for promotion laid down in these rules equal to the number of vacancies determined under these rules. The list so prepared on the basis of seniority-cum-merit and/or on the basis of merit, as the case may be, shall be arranged in the order of seniority of the category of post(s) from which selection is made.

(9) The committee may also prepare a list on the basis of seniority-cum-merit or on the basis of merit, as the case may be, as per the criteria for promotion laid down in these rules, containing names of persons not exceeding the number of persons selected in the list prepared under sub-rule (8) above to fill temporary or permanent vacancies, which may occur subsequently. The list so prepared on the basis of seniority-cum-merit or on the basis of merit, shall be arranged in the order of seniority in the category of posts from which selection shall be made. Such a list shall be reviewed and revised by the committee that meets in the subsequent year and that such list shall remain in force till the end of the last day of the year for which the meeting of the Committee is held.

(10) List prepared under sub-rule (8) and (9) shall be sent to the Appointing Authority together with Annual Confidential Reports/Annual Performance Appraisal Reports and other Service Records of all the candidates included in the list as also of those not selected, if any.

Explanation: For the purpose of selection for promotion on the basis of merit, no person shall be selected if he does not have "Outstanding" or "Very Good" record of at least four out of seven years proceeding the year for which the meeting of the Committee is held.

(11) If in any subsequent year, after promulgation of these rules vacancies relating to any earlier year are determined under these rules which were required to be filled in by promotion, the Committee shall consider the cases of all such persons who would have been eligible in the year to which the vacancies relate irrespective of the year in which meeting of the Committee is held and such promotion shall be governed by the criteria and procedure for promotion as was applicable in the particular year to which the vacancies relate and the services/experience of an incumbent who has been so promoted, for promotion to higher post for any period during which he has not actually performed the duties of the post to which he would have been promoted, shall be counted. The pay of a person who has been so promoted shall be re-fixed at the pay which he would have derived at the time of his promotion, but no arrears of pay shall be allowed to him.

(12) The Government or the Appointing Authority may order for the review of the proceedings of the Committee held earlier on account of some mistake or error apparent on the face of record, or on account of a factual error substantially affecting the decision of the Committee or for any other sufficient reasons e.g. change in seniority, wrong determination of vacancies, judgment/direction of any Court or Tribunal or where adverse entries in the Confidential Reports of an individual are expunged, or toned down or a punishment inflicted on him is set aside or reduced. The concurrence of the Department of Personnel and the Commission (where Commission is associated) shall always be obtained before holding the meeting of the review Committee.

(13) Where consultation with the Commission is necessary the lists prepared by the Committee shall be forwarded to the Commission by the Appointing Authority along with the Personal Files and Annual Confidential Rolls/Annual Performance Appraisal Reports of all the persons whose name have been considered by the Committee.

(14) The Commission shall consider the lists prepared by the Committee along with other relevant documents received from the Appointing Authority and unless any change is considered necessary, shall approve the lists. In case the Commission considers it necessary to make any change in the lists received from the Appointing Authority, it shall inform the Appointing Authority of the changes proposed by it. After taking into account the comments of the Commission, if any, the Appointing Authority may approve the lists finally with such modifications, as may in its opinion, be just and proper and when the Appointing Authority is an authority subordinate to the Government, the lists approved by the Commission shall be disturbed only with the approval of the Government.

(15) Appointments shall be made by the Appointing Authority taking persons out of the lists finally approved under the sub-rule (14) in the order in which they have been placed in the lists, till such lists are exhausted or reviewed and revised or remained in force, as the case may be.

(16) The Government may issue instructions for provisionally dealing with the promotions, appointments or other ancillary matters in an equitable and fair manner of persons who may be under suspension, or against whom departmental proceedings is under progress at the time promotions are considered to a post to which they are eligible or would have been eligible but for such suspension or pendency of such enquiry or proceedings.

(17) The provisions of this rule shall have effect notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in any provision of these rules.

31. Restriction of promotion of persons forgoing promotions.- In case a person, on his/her appointment by promotion to the next higher post either on the basis of urgent temporary appointment or on regular basis on the recommendations of the Committee, forgoes such an appointment through his/her written request, and if the concerned Appointing Authority accept his/her request, the person concerned shall be debarred from consideration for promotion (both on the basis of urgent temporary appointment or on regular basis) for subsequent two recruitment years for which the Committee is held and the name of such person who forgoes promotion shall not be included in the seniority-cum-eligibility list to be placed before the Committee for subsequent two recruitment years.

PART -VI

APPOINTMENT, PROBATION AND CONFIRMATION

32. Appointment to the service.- Appointment to the post(s) in the service by direct recruitment as Probationer-Trainee on fixed remuneration or by promotion, as the case may be, shall be made by the Appointing Authority on occurrence of substantive vacancies from the candidates selected under rule 28 in the order of merit and by promotion from the persons selected under rule 30.

33. Urgent temporary appointment.- (1) A vacancy in the service, which cannot be filled in immediately either by direct recruitment or by promotion under these rules, may be filled in by the Appointing Authority by appointing in an officiating capacity thereto an officer eligible for appointment to the post by promotion or by appointing temporarily thereto a person eligible for direct recruitment to the service where such direct recruitment has been provided under the provisions of these rules:

Provided that such an appointment shall not be continued beyond a period of one year without referring the case to the Commission, for concurrence, where such concurrence is necessary and shall be terminated immediately on their refusal to concur.

Provided further that in respect of a post in the service for which both the methods of recruitment have been prescribed, the Appointing Authority shall not, save with the specific permission of the Government in the Department of Personnel in the case of State Service and Government in the Administrative Department concerned in respect of Subordinate Service, fill the temporary vacancy against the direct recruitment quota by a whole time appointment for a period exceeding 3 months otherwise than out of person eligible for direct recruitment and after a short term advertisement.

(2) In the event of non-availability of suitable persons fulfilling the requirements of eligibility for promotion, Government may, notwithstanding the condition of eligibility for promotion required under sub-rule (1), lay down general instruction for grant of permission to fill the vacancies on urgent temporary basis subject to such conditions and restrictions regarding pay and other allowances as it may direct. Such appointment shall however, be subject to concurrence of the Commission as required under sub-rule (1) above.

34. Seniority.- Seniority of person(s) appointed to the post encadred in the service shall be determined from the date of appointment on the post after regular selection in accordance with the provisions of the these rules. Appointment on ad-hoc or urgent temporary basis shall not be deemed to be appointment after regular selection:

Provided that,—

- (i) the intense seniority of persons appointed to a post in a particular category by direct recruitment on the basis of one and the same selection except those who do not join service when a post is offered to them within a period of six weeks from the date of issue of order or longer, if extended by the Appointing Authority, shall follow the order in which their names have been placed in the list prepared under rule 26;
- (ii) if two or more person(s) are appointed to the service during the same year a person appointed by promotion shall be senior to a person appointed by direct-recruitment;
- (iii) the person selected and appointed as a result of a selection, which is not subject to review and revision, shall rank senior to the persons who are selected and appointed as a result of subsequent selection; and
- (iv) seniority intense of person (s) selected on the basis of seniority-cum-merit and on the basis of merit in the same selection shall be same as in the next below grade.

35. Period of probation.- (1) A person entering the service by direct recruitment against a clear vacancy shall be placed as Probationer trainee for a period of 2 years:

Provided that any period after such appointment during which a person has been on deputation on a corresponding or higher post shall count towards the period of probation.

(2) During the period of probation specified in sub-rule (1) each Probationer trainee may be required to pass such Departmental Examination and to undergo such training as the Government may, from time to time, specify.

36. Confirmation in certain cases.- * (1) "Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in the preceding rule, a person appointed to a post in the service by direct recruitment as a probationer trainee under these rules has not been confirmed within six months after satisfactory completion of probation for a period of two years shall be entitled to be treated as confirmed in accordance with his/her seniority if,-

- (i) he/she has worked on the post or higher post under the same Appointing Authority or would have so worked but for his/her deputation or training;
- (ii) he/she fulfils conditions as are prescribed under rule relating to confirmation subject to the quota prescribed under these rules; and
- (iii) he has been appointed against a substantive vacancy."

(2) If an employee referred to in sub-rule (1) above, fails to fulfill the conditions mentioned in said sub-rule (1), the period mentioned in sub-rule (1) above, may be extended as prescribed for a Probation or under the Rajasthan Civil Services (Departmental Examination) Rules, 1959 and any other rules or by one year, whichever is longer. If the employee still fails to fulfill the conditions mentioned in sub-rule (1) above, he will be liable to be discharged or terminated from such post in the same manner as a Probationer or reverted to his substantive or lower post, if any, to which he may be entitled.

(3) The employee referred to in sub-rule (1) above, shall not be debarred from confirmation after the said period of service if no reason to the contrary about the satisfactory performance of his work are communicated to him within the said period of service.

(4) The reasons for not confirming of any employee referred to in sub-rule (1) above, shall be recorded by the Appointing Authority in his Service Book and Annual Performance Appraisal Report.

* Substituted for (1) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in the preceding rule, a person appointed to a post in the service temporarily or on officiating basis who, after regular recruitment by any one of the method of recruitment prescribed under these rules has not been confirmed within a period of six months after satisfactory completion of the period of probation of two years' service in case he is appointed by direct recruitment or within a period of one year's service in case he is appointed by promotion shall be entitled to be treated as confirmed in accordance with his seniority if,-
