Note:- Absence during service e.g. Training, Leave and Deputation etc. which are treated as ‘duty’ under the Rajasthan Service Rules, 1951 shall also be counted as service for computing experience or service required for promotion.

^o(L) “Year” means the financial year.

3. Interpretation.- Unless the context otherwise requires the Rajasthan General Clauses Act, 1955 (Rajasthan Act No. 8 of 1955), shall apply for the interpretation of these rules as it applies for the interpretation of a Rajasthan Act.

PART-II—CADRE

4. Composition and strength of the Service.- (1) The nature of posts included in each category of the Service shall be as specified in Column 2 of the Schedule.

(2) The strength of posts in each category shall be such as may be determined by the Government, from time to time:

Provided that the Government may:-

(a) Create any posts permanent or temporary, from time to time, as may be found necessary and may abolish any such post in the like manner without thereby entitling any person to any compensation;

^u Substituted for “(k) “Service” or “Experience” wherever prescribed in these rules as a condition for promotion within the Service from one category to another or to senior posts in the case of persons holding such posts in substantive capacity shall include the period for which the person has continuously worked on such posts after regular recruitment and shall also include the experience gained by officiating, temporary or ad hoc appointment, if such appointment is in the regular line of promotion and was not of stop-gap or fortuitous nature or invalid under any law and does not involve supersession of any senior official, except when such supersession was either due to want of prescribed academic and other qualifications, unfitness or non-selection by merit or the default of the senior official concerned or when such ad hoc or urgent temporary appointment was in accordance with seniority-cum-merit.

Note: - Absence during service e.g., training and deputation etc. which treated as ‘duty’ under the Rajasthan Service Rules, 1951, shall also be counted as service for computing minimum experience or service required for promotion.” vide Notification No. F. 6 (2)DOP/A-II/71 dated 29.08.1982.

^o Added vide Notification No. F. 7(2)DOP/A-II/81 dated 21.12.1981 w.e.f. 01-04-1981.

- (b) leave unfilled or hold in abeyance or abolish or allow to lapse any post, permanent or temporary, from time to time, without thereby entitling any person to any compensation.

5. Constitution of the Service.- The Service shall consist of :-

- (a) all persons holding substantively the posts specified in the Schedule;
- (b) all persons recruited to the Service before the commencement of these rules;
- (c) all persons, who are substantive in the Rajasthan Economic and Statistical Service and who had been working on any post included in the Schedule for a period not less than five years on 1-1-78, provided they opt for such post in this Service against which they are working in the Evaluation Organization at the time of option and are found suitable in screening by the Committee referred to in Rule 24;
- (d) all persons recruited to the Service in accordance with the provisions of these rules except those appointed under Rule 26.

PART III- RECRUITMENT

6. Methods of recruitment.- (1) Recruitment to the Service after commencement of these rules, shall be made by the following methods in the proportion indicated in column 3 of the Schedule:-

- (a) by direct recruitment in accordance with Part-IV of these rules, and
- (b) by promotion in accordance with Part-V of these rules:

Provided-

- (i) that nothing in these Rules shall preclude the Government from appointing officers previously in the employment of pre-reorganisation State of Ajmer, Bombay and Madhya Bharat to suitable posts in the Schedule in accordance with the directions governing the integration of their service;
- (ii) that if Government is satisfied, in consultation with the Commission, that suitable persons are not available for appointment by either method of recruitment in the proportion so indicated in a particular year, appointment by the other method in relaxation of the prescribed proportion, may be made in the same manner as specified in these rules;
- (iii) that if the Government is satisfied, in consultation with the Commission, that suitable persons are not available for appointment by promotion, the post of the Director, may be filled in by an officer of an IAS cadre or Rajasthan Economic and Statistical Service;
- (iv) that the persons not covered under rule 5, who were appointed to the posts included in the Schedule in an ad hoc, officiating or urgent temporary basis and have hold equivalent or higher posts continuously for a period of at least six months before 1-1-1978 and were working as such on the date of these rules came into force shall be screened by a Committee referred to in rule 24, for adjudging their suitability on the post held provided they possess the qualifications prescribed in these rules either for direct recruitment or promotion or the prescribed qualifications on the basis of which the persons were selected for ad hoc/officiating/temporary appointment. This provision shall be subject to the following conditions:-

- (a) that a person appointed on ad hoc basis shall not be entitled to screening for a post higher than to which he was initially appointed, if a person senior to him on lower post who fulfilled qualifications prescribed for the post was either not given such ad hoc appointment or is not entitled to screening under this rule. Seniority for this purpose shall be determined according to length of continuous service in a grade.
- (b) that the Committee appointed under these rules for adjudging suitability by screening either as an exception of general methods of recruitment or as initial constitution of service, may ex-gratia recommended if any of the employees with more than three years of service on a post for which he is to be screened is not adjudged suitable and if thereafter has no right to be appointed on a lower post, for such lower post being offered to him by absorption and thereupon such an employee shall be treated as surplus employee under the provisions of the Rajasthan Civil Services (Absorption of Surplus Personnel) Rules, 1969 and such employee may be absorbed on the lower post on the recommendations of the committee subject to such conditions as may be laid down by it.

® Recruitment to the service by the aforesaid method shall be made in such a manner that the persons appointed to the service by each method do not at any time exceed the percentage laid down in the Rules/Schedule of the total cadre strength as sanctioned for each category from time to time.

(2) Notwithstanding anything contained in these rules recruitment, appointment, promotion, seniority and confirmation etc. of a person who joins the Army/Air Force/Navy during an Emergency, shall be regulated by such orders and instructions as may be issued by the Government from time to time provided that these are regulated mutatis mutandis according to the instructions issued on the subject by the Government of India.

Appointment, Seniority, Probation and Confirmation

25. Appointment to the Service.- Appointment to the posts in the Service by direct recruitment or by promotion, as the case may be, shall be made by the Government on occurrence of substantive vacancies from the candidates selected under the rule 21 in order of merit and from the persons selected under rule 24 in accordance with these rules and persons adjudged suitable under proviso (iv) to rule 6 of these rules.

26. Urgent temporary appointment.- (1) A vacancy in the Service which cannot be filled in immediately either by direct recruitment or by promotion under the rules may be filled in by Government or by the Authority competent to make appointments, as the case may be, by appointing in an officiating capacity thereto an officer eligible for appointment to the post by promotion or by appointing temporarily thereto a person eligible for direct recruitment to the service, where such direct recruitment has been provided under the provisions of these rules:

Provided that such an appointment shall not be continued beyond a period of one year without referring the case to the Commission for concurrence, where such concurrence is necessary and shall be terminated immediately on its refusal to concur:

Provided further that in respect of a post in the Service for which both the methods of recruitment have been prescribed, the Appointing Authority or the Authority competent to make appointment, as the case may be, shall not, save with the specific permission of the Government in the Department of Personnel and Administrative Reforms, fill in the temporary vacancy against the direct recruitment quota by a whole time appointment for a period exceeding three months, otherwise than out of persons eligible for direct recruitment and after a short term advertisement.

(2) In the event of non-availability of suitable persons, fulfilling the requirements of eligibility for promotion, Government may, notwithstanding the conditions of eligibility for promotion required under sub-rule (1) above lay down general instructions for grant of permission to fill the vacancies on urgent temporary basis, subject to such conditions and restrictions regarding pay and other allowances as it may direct. Such appointments, shall, however be subject to concurrence of the Commission as required under the said sub-rule.

⊗27. Seniority.- “Seniority of persons appointed to the post encadred in the service shall be determined from the date of appointment on the post after regular selection in accordance with the provisions of these rules. Appointment on ad hoc or urgent temporary basis shall not be deemed to be appointment after regular selection”.

Provided-

(1) that the seniority inter se of the persons appointed to the Service before the commencement of these rules and the Service of the pre-reorganization State of Rajasthan or the Service of the new State of Rajasthan established by the State Reorganization Act, 1956 shall be determined on ad hoc basis;

(2) that if two or more persons are appointed to post in the same category in the same year, a person appointed by promotion shall rank senior to a person appointed by direct recruitment;

(3) that the seniority inter se of persons appointed to a particular category by direct recruitment on the basis of one and the same selection except those who do not join Service when a post is offered to them shall follow the order in which they have been placed in the list prepared by the Commission under rule 21;

(4) that the seniority inter se of persons appointed to a particular category as a result of option given by them under rule 5(c) vis-a-vis those covered under rule 5 shall be reckoned from the date of their working in the Evaluation Organization or elsewhere against that post.

(5) that the inter se seniority of the persons adjudged suitable under proviso (iv) to rules shall be determined on the recommendations of the Committee referred to in rule 24.

(6) that the person selected and appointed as a result of a selection, which is not subject to review and revision, shall rank senior to the persons who are selected and appointed as a result of subsequent selection;

Seniority inter se of persons selected on the basis of seniority-cum-merit and on the basis of merit in the same selection shall be the same as in the next below grade.
