5. Constitution of the Service.- the Service shall consist of-

- (a) all persons holding substantively at the commencement of these Rules, the posts specified in the Schedule;
- (b) all persons recruited to the Service for substantive appointment before commencement of these Rules, provided recruitment was made in accordance with the provisions of the Rules or orders for the time being in force; and
- (c) all persons appointed to the Service in accordance with the provisions of these rules except those appointed under rule 25.

PART-III RECRUITMENT

6. Methods of recruitment.- (1) Recruitment to the Service after the commencement of these Rules shall be made by the following methods in the proportion as indicated in Column 3 of the Schedule: -

- (a) direct recruitment in accordance with Part IV of these Rules, and
- (b) promotion in accordance with Part V of these Rules:

[#]6(1A) "Recruitment to the service by the aforesaid method shall be made in such a manner that the persons appointed to the service by each method do not at any time exceed the percentage laid down in the Rules/Schedule of the total cadre strength as sanctioned for each category from time to time."

Provided-

- (i) That if the Appointing Authority is satisfied, in consultation with the Commission, where necessary, that suitable persons are not available for appointment by either method of recruitment or in the proportion so indicated in a particular year, appointment by the other method in relaxation of the prescribed proportion, may be made in the same manner as specified in these Rules;
- (ii) That nothing in these Rules shall preclude the appointing Authority from appointing officers who were previously in the employment of pre-reorganization States of Ajmer, Bombay and Madhaya Bharat to suitable posts specified in the Schedule in accordance with the *"directions" governing the integration of their services;
- @ that if the Appointing Authority, in consultation with the Commission, is satisfied that if no Officer is available for appointment by promotion to the post of Deputy Commandant General-cum-Deputy Director, Civil Defence, it may be filled in from amongst the Indian Police Service Officers.
- (iii) That the first recruitment or appointment to posts included in the Service shall be made by the Government by substantive appointment, subject to availability of vacancies, from amongst persons who were appointed initially on such posts in an ad-hoc, officiating or temporary capacity and who are holding such postson the first day of January of the year in which the Rules are published in such capacity for a period not less than one year and possess qualifications and experience prescribed in these Rules either for direct recruitment or for promotion for such posts in the rules or orders repealed by rule 36 by the method of getting them screened on the recommendation of the Committee referred to in rule 23 for the purpose of adjudging their suitability on posts held by them. The Committee will also recommend the order in which the names of such persons shall be placed:

Provided that a person appointed on ad-hoc basis shall not be entitled to screening for a post higher than to which he was initially appointed, if a person senior to him on lower post who fulfilled qualifications prescribed for the post was either not given such ad-hoc appointment or is not entitled to screening under this rule. Seniority for this purpose if not determined earlier shall be determined according to length of continuous service to a post:

Provided further that the Committee appointed under these Rules for adjudging suitability by screening either as an exception of general methods of recruitment or as initial constitution of service, may ex-gratia recommend, if any of the employees with more than three years of service on a post for which he is to be screened is not adjudged suitable and if thereafter has no right to be appointed on a lower post, for such lower post being offered to him by absorption and thereupon such an employee shall be treated as surplus employee under the provisions of the Rajasthan Civil Services (Absorption of Surplus Personnel) Rules, 1969 and such employee may be absorbed on the lower post on the recommendations of the Committee subject to such conditions as may be laid down by it.

Note:- The screening provision has been intended to be first step for recruitment and after exhausting the vacancies required for screened persons irrespective of direct recruitment and promotion quota the direct recruitment promotion quota shall be applied.

(2) Notwithstanding anything contained in these Rules Recruitment, appointment, promotion, seniority and confirmation etc. of a person who joins the Army/Air force/Navy during an emergency shall be regulated by such orders and instructions as may be issued by the Government from time to time provided that these are regulated mutatis mutandis according to the directions issued on the subject by the Government of India.

If no person substantive in next lower post is eligible for promotion, persons who have been appointed on such posts on officiating basis after selection in accordance with one of the methods of recruitment or under any Service Rules promulgated under proviso to Article 309 of 'the constitution of India may be considered for promotion on officiating basis only in the order of seniority in which they would have been had they been substantive on the said lower post.

Explanation:- In case direct recruitment to a post has been made earlier than regular selection for promotion in a particular year, such of the persons who are or were eligible for appointment to that post by both the methods of recruitment and have been appointed by direct recruitment first, shall be considered for promotion.

(4) Selection for promotion in the regular line of promotion from the post not included the Service to the lowest post in the Service shall be made strictly on the basis of merit.

(5) Selection for promotion from the lowest post to the next higher post in the Service shall be made solely on the basis of seniority -cum-merit from amongst the persons who have put in at least five years' service unless a different period is prescribed elsewhere in these rules, on the first day of the month of April of the year of selection on the post from which selection is to be made:

Provided that in the event of non-availability of the persons with the requisite period of service of five years, the Committee may consider the persons having less than the prescribed period of service, if they fulfil the qualifications, experience and other conditions for promotion prescribed elsewhere in these rules and found otherwise suitable for promotion on the basis of seniority-cum-merit:

Provided further that in respect of posts included in the Service in which the method of recruitment to the lowest posts are required to be filled on the basis of seniority-cum-merit under this sub-rule, the Committee may select for promotion such persons of outstanding merit available with the zone of consideration, who may not be selected on the basis of seniority-cum-merit, to the extent of one-fourth of the number of vacancies to be filled in by promotion and if the number of vacancies exceeds one but is less than four, the committee may select one person on the basis of merit alone and if the vacancies are more than four and the calculation of the number of vacancies to be filled by merit alone according to the aforesaid basis results in a fraction the Committee may select one more person against a fraction of half or more. On being so selected, for the purpose of determination of seniority, such persons shall be deemed to have been selected on the basis of seniority-cum-merit.

(6) Selection for promotion to all other higher posts in the Service shall be made on the basis of merit alone.

(7) The persons having been selected and appointed by promotion to a post in the Service on the basis of merit shall be eligible for promotion to the next higher post which is to be filled in by merit only when they have put in after regular selection at least five years' service unless a higher period of service is prescribed elsewhere in these rules, on the first day of the month of April of the year of selection on the post from which selection is to be made:

Provided that the condition of five years' service shall not be applicable to a person if any person junior to him is eligible for consideration for promotion on the basis merit:

Provided further that in the event of non-availability of persons, equal to the number of vacancies to be filled in, eligible for promotion in the category of posts next lower from which promotion is made, the Committee may consider the persons having less than five years' service if they are found otherwise eligible and suitable for promotion on the basis of merit alone.

Explanation:- If any doubt arises about the categorization of the post as the lowest, next higher post in the Service, the matter shall be referred to the Government in the Department of Personnel, whose decision thereon shall be final.

(8) The zone of eligibility for promotion shall be five times the number of vacancies to be filled in on the basis of seniority-cum-merit or merit as the case may be:
