Such a list shall be reviewed and revised by the committee that meets in the subsequent year and that such list shall remain in force till the end of the last day of the year for which the meeting of the committee is held.

(10) Lists prepares under sub-rule (8) and (9) shall be sent to the Appointing Authority together with annual confidential Reports/annual performance appraisal reports and other service records of all the candidates included in the lists as also of those not selected, if any.

Explanation:- For the purpose of selection for promotion on the basis of merit, no person shall be selected if he does not have "outstanding" or "very good" record of at least four out of seven years preceding the year for which the meeting of the committee is held.

(11) If in any subsequent year, after promulgation of these rules vacancies relating to any earlier year are determined under these rules which were required to be filled in by promotion, the committee shall consider the cases of all such persons who would have been eligible in the year to which the vacancies relate irrespective of the year in which meeting of the committee is held and such promotion shall be governed by the criteria and procedure for promotion as was applicable in the particular year to which the vacancies relate and the Service/experience of an incumbent who has been so promoted, for promotion to higher post for any period during which he has not actually performed the duties of the post to which he would have been promoted, shall be counted. The pay of a person who has been so promoted shall be re-fixed at the pay which he would have derived at the time of his promotion, but no arrears of pay shall be allowed to him.

(12) The Government or the Appointing Authority may order for the review of the proceedings of the committee held earlier on account of some mistake or error apparent on the face of record, or on account of a factual error substantially affecting the decision of the committee or for any other sufficient reasons e.g. change in seniority, wrong determination of vacancies, judgment/direction of any court or tribunal, or where adverse entries in the confidential reports of an individual are expunged or toned down or a punishment inflicted on him is set aside or reduced. The concurrence of the department of personnel and the Commission (where Commission is associated) shall always be obtained before holding the meeting of the review committee.

(13) Where consultation with the Commission is necessary the lists prepared by the committee shall be forwarded to the Commission by the Appointing Authority along-with the personal files and annual confidential rolls/annual performance appraisal reports of all the persons whose names have been considered by the Committee.

(14) The Commission shall consider the lists prepared by the committee along-with other relevant documents received from the Appointing Authority and unless any change is considered necessary, shall approve the lists, In case the Commission considers it necessary to make any change in the lists received from the Appointing Authority, it shall inform the Appointing Authority of the changes proposed by it. After taking into account the comments of the Commission, if any, the Appointing Authority may approve the lists finally with such modifications, as may in its opinion, be just and proper and when the Appointing Authority is an authority subordinate to the Government, the lists approved by the Commission shall be disturbed only with approval of the Government.

(15) Appointments shall be made by the Appointing Authority taking persons out of the lists finally approved under the preceding sub-rule (14) in the order in which they have been placed in the lists, till such lists are exhausted or reviewed and revised or remained in force, as the case may be.

(16) The Government may issue instructions for provisionally dealing with the promotions, appointments or other ancillary matters in an equitable and fair manner of persons who may be under suspension, or against whom departmental proceedings is under progress, at the time promotions are considered to a post to which they are eligible or would have been eligible but for such suspension or pendency of such enquiry or proceedings.

(17) The provisions of this rule shall have effect notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in any provision of these rules.

¹24AA. Restriction of promotion of persons foregoing promotions.- In case a person on his appointment by promotion to the next higher post either on the basis of urgent temporary appointment or on regular basis on the recommendation of the Departmental Promotion Committee, forgoes such an appointment through his written request and if the concerned Appointing Authority accepts his/her request, the person concerned shall be debarred from consideration for promotion (both on the basis or urgent, temporary appointment or on regular basis) for subsequent two recruitment years for which the Departmental Promotion Committee is held and the Power to relax rules.- In exceptional cases where the Administrative Department of the Government is satisfied that operation of the rules relating to age or regarding requirement of experience for recruitment causes undue hardship in any particular case or where the Government is of the opinion that it is necessary or expedient to relax any of the provisions of these rules with respect to age or experience of any persons, it may with the concurrence of the Department of personnel and Administrative Reforms and in consultation with the Commission by orders dispense with or relax the relevant provisions of these rules to such extent and subject to such conditions as it may consider necessary for dealing with the case in a just and equitable manner, provided that such relaxation shall not be less favorable than the provisions already contained in these rules. Such cases of relaxation shall be referred to the Rajasthan Public Service Commission by the ²“Administrative Department concerned”.

³Provided that relaxation in the prescribed period of service or experience under this rule shall only be granted to the extent of 1/3 period of the service or experience prescribed for promotion to any post before holding the meeting of the Departmental Promotion Committee.

⁴Provided further that where the prescribed period of experience for promotion to any post is less than 6 years, a committee headed by the Chief Secretary comprising of Principal Secretary Finance, Principal Secretary/ Secretary Department of Personnel and Principal Secretary/Secretary of the Administrative Department, may consider the cases where forty five percent or more posts are vacant. The committee is empowered to suggest the quantum of relaxation in experience which may be granted in such cases to address the issue of large number of vacancies in promotional posts subject to condition that such relaxation in experience shall not be more than two years.

⁵Provided also that in case vacant post cannot be filled by promotion for want of prescribed experience in the lower post or experience of service or both, as the case may be, for the year 2023-24, a relaxation upto two years in experience of the lower post or experience of service or both, as the case may be, shall be given to fill vacant post. However where the experience prescribed for promotion is two years, relaxation shall be given for one year only. No one shall be promoted during the period of probation.
