General Administration in any organisation is a crucial procedure which involves several activities. The government systems of personnel administration continue to focus largely on Establishment Rules and Procedures along with an intricate fabric of Reservation Rules in Services for SC/ST/OBC/EWS . Several changes have been made time to time in these Rules, making it crucial to be carefully understood for effective implementation. It is very important that these rules are carefully administered to ensure all the laid down guidelines and procedures of the government are adhered to.

Programme Objectives:

- Enhance skill and knowledge of the personnel dealing with the Establishment Rules during their day-to-day activities.
- Describe Constitutional provisions relating to reservation in service, definition in respect of SC/ST/OBC and identifying their scope and applicability.

Programme Coverage:

- Conduct and Disciplinary Rules
- Seniority & Promotion, Leave Rules 1972 etc
- List the role and functions of Liaison Officers and other monitoring agencies.
- Process Reservation in Direct Recruitment and Promotion Cases
- Process cases of de-reservation, carry forward, backlog.
- Prepare, operate, and maintain reservation rosters.
- State the provisions for reservation for persons with disability.

Participant Profile: The program has been designed to provide comprehensive input to all levels of staff/ officers dealing with establishment and Reservation rules in various organisations.

Methodology: The programme would be participative in nature. The sessions would be based on conceptual deliberations, case studies, success stories and group discussion.
