PART-II Cadre

4. Composition and strength of the Service:- (1) The Service shall consist of seven groups. The right of promotion shall be confined to each group and no member shall be transferred from one group to another group.

(2) The nature of posts included in each group of the Service shall be as specified in column 2 of the schedule.

(3) The strength of posts in each group of the service shall be such as may be determined by the Government from time to time:

Provided that:-

- (i) the Government may create any post, permanent or temporary, from time to time, as may be found necessary and may abolish any such post in the like manner without thereby entitling any person to any compensation;
- (ii) the Appointing Authority may leave unfilled or hold in abeyance or allow to lapse any post permanent or temporary, from time to time, without thereby entitling any person to any compensation.
- ⁰(iii) (a) The Government may also create temporarily the posts specified in Schedule II, appended to these Rules, for such period as it may deem fit.
(b) The provisions contained in these Rules except those regarding substantive appointment shall, as far as may be, applicable to such temporary posts in matters of recruitment, seniority and appointment by promotion etc., subject to such modifications as specified in Schedule II.
(c) Post included in Schedule II shall be treated as isolated and ex-cadre post and appointment thereto shall not confer any right to appointment, confirmation and seniority on the posts included in the permanent cadre of Schedule I.
(d) A holder of a temporary post included in schedule II shall also be eligible for promotion to higher temporary category of posts as and when created and included in Schedule II, if he fulfills other conditions laid down in that Schedule.
(e) A member of Service shall have precedence over the holder of a temporary post included in Schedule II, when they are otherwise equally placed.

5. Constitution of the Service:- The Service shall consist of-

- (a) all persons holding substantively the posts specified in the Schedule;
- (b) all persons recruited to the Service before the commencement of these Rules; and
- (c) all persons recruited to the Service in accordance with the provisions of these Rules.

⁰ Added vide Notification No. F. 2(8) DOP/A-II/80, dated 24-10-1981.

PART - III

Recruitment

6. Methods of Recruitment:- (1) Subject to the provisions here in after contained in these Rules, recruitment or appointment to posts in the Service shall be made by the following methods in the proportion as indicated in column 3 of the Schedule:-

- (a) by direct recruitment in accordance with Part IV of these Rules; and
- (b) by promotion in accordance with part V of these Rules;

*6(1A) Recruitment to the service by the aforesaid method shall be made in such a manner that the person appointed to the service by each method do not at any time exceed the percentage laid down in the Rules/Schedule of the total cadre strength as sanctioned for each category from time to time-

Provided that –

- (i) if the Appointing Authority is satisfied that suitable persons are not available for appointment by promotion in the proportion so indicated in a particular year, appointment by the other method in relaxation of the prescribed proportion may be made in the same manner as specified in these Rules;
- (ii) nothing in these Rules shall preclude the Appointing Authority from appointing officers who were, immediately before 1.11.1956, in the employment of pre-reorganization States of Ajmer, Bombay and Madhya Bharat, to suitable posts in the Schedule in accordance with the directions governing the integration of their services; and
- (iii) the persons not covered by Rule 5 who were appointed to posts included in the Schedule in an ad hoc/officiating/temporary basis continuously in the relevant group, for a period not less than 1 year on 1.1.1973 and were working as such on the date these rules came into force shall be screened by a committee referred to in Rule 24, for adjudging their suitability on the post held provided they possess the qualification prescribed in the rules either for direct recruitment or for promotion or the prescribed qualification on the basis of which the persons were selected for ad-hoc/officiating/temporary appointment :

Provided that a person appointed on ad hoc basis shall not be entitled to screening for a post higher than to which he was initially appointed, if a person senior to him on lower post who fulfilled qualification prescribed for the post was either not given such ad hoc appointment or is not entitled to screening under this rule. Seniority for this purpose if not determined earlier shall be determined according to length of continuous service to a post.

* Inserted vide Notification No. F. 7(2)DOP/A-II/1996 dated 13.11.1996.

12. Character:- The character of a candidate for direct recruitment must be such as to qualify him for employment in the Service. He must produce a certificate of good character from the Principal/ Academic Officer of the University or College or School in which he was last educated and two such certificates written not more than six months prior to the date of application from two responsible persons not connected with his School or College or University and not related to him.

Note:- (1) A conviction by a Court of Law need not of itself involve the refusal of a certificate of good character. The circumstances of the conviction should be taken into account and if they involve no moral turpitude or association with crimes of violence or with a movement, which has as its object to overthrow by violent means of Government as by law established, the mere conviction need not be regarded as a disqualification.

(2) Ex-prisoners who by their disciplined life while in prison and by their subsequent good conduct have proved to be completely reformed should not be discriminated against on grounds of the previous conviction for purposes of employment in the Service. Those who are convicted of offences not involving moral turpitude shall be deemed to have been completely reformed on the production of a report to that effect from the Superintendent, After Care Home or if there are no such homes in a particular district, from the Superintendent of Police of that district.

Those convicted of offences involving moral turpitude shall be required to produce a certificate from the Superintendent, After Care Homes, or if there are no such Homes in a particular district, from the Superintendent of Police of that district, endorsed by the Inspector General of Prisons to the effect that they are suitable for employment as they have proved to be completely reformed by their disciplined life while in prison and by their subsequent good conduct in After Care Home.

13. Physical Fitness:- A candidate for direct recruitment to the Service must be in good mental and bodily health and free from any mental and physical defect likely to interface with the efficient performance of his duties as a member of Service and if selected, must produce a certificate to that effect from a Medical Authority notified by the Government for the purpose. The Appointing Authority may dispense with production of such certificate in the case of candidate who is already serving in connection with the affairs of the State if he has already been medically examined for the previous appointment and the essential standard of medical examination of the two posts held by him are to be comparable for efficient performance of duties of the new post and his age has not reduced his efficiency for the purpose.

14. Employment of irregular or improper means:- A candidate who is or has been declared by Appointing Authority guilty of impersonation or of submitting fabricated document or documents which have been tampered with or of making statements which are incorrect or false or of suppressing material information or of using or attempting to use unfair means in the examination or interview or otherwise resorting to any other irregular or improper means for obtaining admission to the examination or interview, may in addition to rendering himself liable to criminal prosecution, be debarred either permanently or for a specified period:

- (a) by the Appointing Authority, from admission to any examination or appearance at any interview held by the Appointing Authority for selection of candidates; and
- (b) by the Government from employment under the Government.

15. Canvassing:- No recommendation for recruitment either written or oral other than that required under the rules, shall be taken into consideration. Any attempt on the part of a candidate to enlist support directly or indirectly for his candidature by any means may disqualify him for recruitment.

PART – IV - Procedure for Direct Recruitment

Substituted for ^Z24 A. Revised Criteria, Eligibility and Procedure for promotion to Junior, Senior and other posts encadred in the Service:- (1) Selection for promotion in the regular line of promotion from the post not included in the service to the lowest post or category of post in the Service shall be made strictly on the basis of merit.

(2) Subject to the provisions of sub-rule (4), selection for promotion from the lowest post or category of post in the Service to the next higher post or category of post in the Service and for all posts upto Scale No.11, sanctioned under the Rajasthan Civil Services (New Pay Scales) Rules, 1969 or equivalent scales as may be declared by the Government from time to time, shall be made solely on the basis of seniority-cum-merit from amongst the persons who have passed the qualifying examination, if any, prescribed under these rules, and have put in at least five years’ service, unless a different period is prescribed elsewhere in these rules, on the first day of the month of April of the year of selection on the post or category of post from which selection is to be made:

Provided that in the event of non-availability of the persons with the requisite period of service of five years, the Committee may consider the persons having less than the prescribed period of service, if they fulfill the qualifications, experience and other conditions for promotion prescribed elsewhere in these rules and are found otherwise suitable for promotion on the basis of seniority-cum-merit;

Provided further that in respect of posts that included in the State Services in which the methods of recruitment to the lowest post provides for appointment by promotion, and where such posts are required to be filled on the basis of seniority-cum-merit under this sub rule the Committee may select for promotion such persons of outstanding merit available within the zone of consideration, who may not be selected on the basis of seniority-cum-merit, to the extent of one fourth of the number of vacancies to be filled in by promotion and if the number of vacancies exceeds one but is less than four, the Committee may select one person on the basis of merit alone and if the vacancies are more than four and the calculation of the number of vacancies to be filled by merit alone according to the aforesaid basis results in a fraction, the Committee may select one more person against a fraction of half or more. On being so selected, for the purpose of determination of seniority, such persons shall be deemed to have been selected on the basis of seniority-cum-merit.

(3) Selection for promotion to all other higher posts or higher categories of posts in the Service shall be made on the basis of merit alone.

(4) Selection for promotion to the highest post, or highest category of post in the Service shall always be made on the basis of merit alone.

(5) The persons having been selected and appointed by promotion to a post or category of post on the basis of merit, shall be eligible for promotion to the next higher post or category of post, which is to be filled in by merit, only when they have put in after regular selection, at least five years’ service, unless a higher period of service is prescribed elsewhere in these rules, on the first day of the month of April of the year of selection on the post or category of post from which selection is to be made:

Provided that the condition of five years’ service shall not be applicable to a person if any person junior to him is eligible for consideration for promotion on the basis of merit;

Provided further that in the event of non-availability of persons, equal to the number of vacancies to be filled in, eligible for promotion in the category of posts next lower from which promotion is made, the Committee may consider the persons having less than five years’ service if they are found otherwise eligible and suitable for promotion on the basis of merit alone.

Provided further that in the event of non-availability of persons, equal to the number of vacancies to be filled in eligible for promotion in the category of posts next lower from which promotion is made, the Committee may consider the persons having less than five years’ service if they are found otherwise eligible and suitable for promotion on the basis of merit alone.

Explanation- If any doubt arises about the categorization of the post as the lowest, next higher or highest post in the Service, the matter shall be referred to the Government in the Department of Personnel, whose decision thereon shall be final.

(6) The zone of eligibility for promotion shall be five times the number of vacancies to be filled in on the basis of seniority-cum-merit or merit, as the case may be;

Provided that in case of non-availability of sufficient number of suitable persons for selection on the basis of merit, the Committee may at its discretion consider persons of outstanding merit outside the zone of eligibility but falling within six times the number of vacancies to be filled in on the basis of merit.

(3) No person shall be considered for first promotion in the service unless he is regularly selected on the post from which promotion is to be made in accordance with one of the methods of recruitment prescribed under the provisions of these rules.

Explanation: In case direct recruitment to a post has been made earlier than regular selection by promotion in a particular year such of the persons who are or were eligible for appointment to that post by both the methods of recruitment and have been appointed by direct recruitment first, shall also be considered for promotion.

(7) Except as otherwise expressly provided in this rule, the conditions of eligibility for promotion, constitution of the Committee and procedure for selection shall be the same as prescribed elsewhere in these Rules.

(8) The Committee shall consider the cases of all the senior most persons who are eligible and qualified for promotion to the class of posts concerned under these Rules, interviewing such of them as it may deem necessary, and shall prepare a list containing names of the suitable persons equal to the number of existing vacancies and the vacancies anticipated to occur during the next twelve months after the determination of vacancies. The Committee shall also prepare a separate list containing names of persons, who may be considered suitable to fill temporary or permanent vacancies, which may occur till the next meeting of the Committee, on a temporary or officiating basis and the list so prepared shall be reviewed and revised every year and shall remain in force until it is so reviewed and revised. The lists so prepared on the basis of merit shall be arranged in order of preference and the list prepared on the basis of seniority-cum-merit shall be arranged in order of seniority on the category of post from which selection has been made. Such lists shall be sent to concerned Appointing Authority together with the Annual Confidential Rolls and Personal Files of the candidates included in them as also of those not selected, if any.

Explanation- The list of preference shall classify the officers in order as 'Outstanding', 'Very Good' and 'Good' on the basis of merit. In each class the officers shall maintain their inter-se-seniority of the next below grade.

(9) Where consultation with the Commission is necessary the lists prepared by the Committee shall be forwarded to the Commission by the Appointing Authority along with the Personal Files and Annual Confidential Rolls of the persons whose names have been considered by the Committee.

(10) The Commission shall consider the list prepared by the Committee along with other relevant documents received from the Appointing Authority, and, unless any change is considered necessary, shall approve the lists. In case the Commission consider it necessary to make any change in the lists received from the Appointing Authority, it shall inform the Appointing Authority of the change proposed by it. After taking into account the comments of the Commission, if any, the Appointing Authority may approve the lists finally with such modifications, as may, in its opinion, be just and proper and when the Appointing Authority is an authority subordinate to the Government, the lists approved by the Commission should be disturbed only with the approval of the Government.

(11) Appointments shall be made by the Appointing Authority taking persons out of the lists finally approved under the preceding sub-rule(10) in the order in which they have been placed in the lists, till such lists are exhausted or reviewed and revised as the case may be.

^Y(11-A) Government may issue instructions for provisionally dealing with promotions, appointments or other ancillary matters in an equitable and fair manner of persons who may be under suspension, or against whom departmental proceedings is under progress at the time promotions are considered to a post to which they are eligible or would have been eligible but for such suspension or pendency of such enquiry or proceedings.
