Respected Sir,

Greetings from Economic Services and Productivity Promotion Group, and Public Policy and Regional Development initiative at National Productivity Council, New Delhi !

This is to submit and request kind consideration to kindly nominate Senior / Middle Management Officials from your esteemed office / Department, to either one or both of the following Residential Training Programmes, as being organized at New Delhi / National Capital Region as per associated details below and as described in the attached 2 Nos brochures please.

- (1). Policy making, institutional framework, governance and strategies – Scoping redesign prospects and initiatives at New Delhi / NCR [During 5-9 August, 2024 with Closing date for receiving nominations as 22 July, 2024]{ Programme Code T2425ECO11}
- (2). Policy Entrepreneurship, Program Design and Development Initiatives – Thematic Experiences and Futuristic Roadmap at New Delhi / NCR [During 9 to 13 September, 2024 with Closing date for receiving nominations as 23 August, 2024]{ Programme Code T2425ECO13}

As the business and institutional environment is highly dynamic with many factors at work, there is a constant focus on and need of efficient and effective action on policy evolution towards addressing economic growth and development initiatives over time periods and to meet related information and data requirements that call for attention, analysis, measurement and so on.

The intricate processes especially involve identifying varieties of gaps and shaping national or regional policies and project / schemes developmental work, besides cause effect analyses and SWOT analysis and other insight development processes etc. The areas of attention or gaps in nation/state and regional contexts are often sought to be addressed through programmatic/project action by designing and utilizing suitable methods/methodologies/guidelines and including suitable parameters and indicators to monitor, evaluate and guide the steering processes and for assessing impacts. Various additional stakeholders and organizations, such as international multilateral organisations, and Small / Medium / /Large enterprises and other social entities also play key roles in enabling objectives/vision and missions to be met within the estimated costs and benefits to play out and reflecting feedback on achievements.

Keeping in view the nature of requirements as highlighted above, and need for systematic approaches to effective policy making / policy entrepreneurship and programme design and their implementation, National Productivity Council of India (NPC), an autonomous organization under Department for Promotion of Industry & Internal Trade, Ministry of Commerce and Industry, Government of India, is pleased to announce the above two mentioned Residential Training Programmes to intensively deliberate on the subject(s), and to impart skills and techniques to the delegates on further strengthening the analytical capabilities and undertaking integrated roles/responsibilities and applying relevant methods/mechanisms for achieving organizational/institutional and policy objectives.

The Residential Training Programmes have been designed with integration of technical sessions and conceptual deliberations, case studies and exercises, success stories and group discussions for executives/officials of Central & State Governments, Public Sector Undertakings, Private Sector Enterprises, Co-operatives, Corporations, Financial Institutions & NBFCs, Boards & Autonomous Organizations, Academic Institutions and other enterprises/entities etc.

Participation fee in each program is Rs. 60,000/- for Residential Participants and Rs. 44,000/- for Non-Residential Participants. GST @18% per participant is further applicable on Participation fees.

We hope that that the above mentioned Residential Training Programmes are found useful. We request your kind consideration of the training programme objectives and structure and to kindly nominate esteemed officials for the residential training programme(s).

The 2 Nos brochures containing the full details of the respective Residential Training Programmes are attached herewith for kind perusal and reference please.

These brochures are also available corresponding to the specified dates on our Training Calendar at the NPC website at following weblink : <https://www.npcindia.gov.in/NPC/User/TrainingHeadQuarter> accessed 27 May, 2024. The Registration process and participation fee payment mechanism are indicated and described in the brochures, and can be addressed and navigated online through the "Register" icon/button corresponding to the Training programme details on the Training Calendar via above weblink please.

Thanking you and eagerly looking forward to receiving kind nominations please.

Yours Sincerely,

Harsh Thukral
